

It's time to APPalachian Up!
There's genius in these hollers.

BECOME AN APPUP! FACILITATOR

A culturally specific prevention program rooted in Appalachian culture.

AppUp! (Appalachian Prevention Program) facilitator training prepares organizations to implement a prevention program that builds identity, resilience, self-efficacy, and community connection through storytelling, arts mentoring, and prevention education.

TRAINING OVERVIEW

- One-day, in-person training - December 2, 2026 - 8:30 AM - 4:30 PM
- Marshall University | Huntington, WV
Building/Room # TBD - will be shared via email with registrants
- ✓ Includes facilitator manual & implementation guidance
- ✓ Earn up to 6 CEUs (Pending approval for Social Work and Addictions & Prevention)

WHO SHOULD BECOME A FACILITATOR?

- Prevention & behavioral health staff
- Libraries & community programs
- Recovery support organizations
- Schools & after-school programs
- 4-H & Extension Professionals
- Substance Use Coalition Members

EACH PARTICIPANT WILL RECEIVE

- ✓ Printed Facilitator Manual
- ✓ Official AppUp! Facilitator Badge
- ✓ Digital Journal (unlimited printing)
- ✓ Authorization to Implement AppUp!
- ✓ 50 Printed Participant Journals
- ✓ Technical Assistance as Needed

YOU'LL LEARN HOW TO

- ✓ Facilitate the AppUp! curriculum
- ✓ Use storytelling in prevention practice
- ✓ Coordinate community arts mentoring experiences
- ✓ Foster identity, resilience, and community connection
- ✓ Adapt the program for your community

TRAINING COST

$423/per participant

Priced in honor of the 423 counties of Appalachia!

TO REGISTER, EMAIL:

Tammy L. Collins, PhD, ICPS, WVPS2, OCPC

collins@marshall.edu

Include the following for each participant: ✓ Name ✓ Title ✓ Organization ✓ Email

Payment by credit card or check after registration is confirmed with Dr. Collins.*